

I don't understand why you would consider softening this law that has been a blessing for those of us hounded by telemarketers. And isn't that all of us that have published phone numbers? Please keep it the way it is!!!